A futuristic, icy underground mining facility. The scene is dominated by a deep blue and white color palette, suggesting a cold, cavernous environment. In the foreground, a large, dark, rectangular server rack is visible, featuring a prominent yellow Bitcoin logo. The background shows a long, narrow corridor lined with similar server racks, each also displaying the Bitcoin logo. The ceiling is high and appears to be made of ice or snow, with icicles hanging from the edges. The floor is uneven and rocky, with some cables and equipment scattered around. The overall atmosphere is one of high-tech industrial activity in a harsh, natural setting.
